10 SEP 30 1999 MS. DYER: Yes. My name is Genie Dyer, and I've 11 been here for the last two hours listening to all the 12 insufficient data that all these individuals have gathered, and 13 this draft.

1... 14 I want to know how can the Environmental 15 Protection Agency be so inadequate in giving us these drafts
16 that have not addressed the specific areas that need to be 17 addressed? How can you expect to give 'em to us and expect us
18 to say, "Everything's okay."

19 Aren't you human? Aren't you human? Where are 20 you? Can't you understand that it's our life?

21 All these people here want to be able to live in 22 this community, and you haven't even addressed all these areas
23 that are really necessary for us to live.

24 Do you remember what happened in Hiroshima? Do 25 you remember how we used these items that you're trying to

2 Can't you understand that we do not want them
3 here? Please do something about it. Give us some information
4 that's going to make a difference to us and to you yourself,
5 because you're not going to be able to sleep at night if you
6 kill us.

7 Thank you.
